

I think our do not call list should remain as is. I just wish we had a do not call list for businesses. Telemarketers seem to call ALWAYS at the most inconvenient time. If we are interested in any of these products that they try to sell...then we can always look THEM up.